Oh My God World Of Warcraft Has Taken My Life

I've had Super Paper Mario sitting next to me for days, but for some reason playing a lengthy RPG doesn't interest me...

I want to get my Warrior to level 70...

I kinda hate myself for it. :dry:

Ah, I need a new game to enjoy, any game dammit!

Anything to get me away from this plague...

Stupid SSBB being miles away...

I don't think he has a 360.

Shame on you for getting addicted.

My birthday isn't far away, and if I'm able to scrape enough spare cash together a 360 is likely, especially with the price cuts...

I've always been a fan of Halo 3 and the like.

Just gotta make sure to get my drum kit first... And possibly more RAM... This computer is so slow... >_>

Good news guys.

It's been at least a week since I last played WoW.

I'M CURED!

Yeah, it gets REALLY boring, I should really go on it to say hi to the people I made friends with...

But I can't be arsed.

It's too much effort for me. :laugh:

I'll just go on Guitar Hero instead, much better.

I know EXACTLY what you mean. I got into WoW at the beginning of this Summer and I have been playing practically every day since then. I think I have about 17 days of gameplay logged. That is the most time I have ever played a single game in my life... It's too bad that I can't log in right now since Blizzard is performing scheduled maintenance on the servers. I'm almost to level 69 on my Gnome Mage. If anyone wants to play sometime, my toon's name is Maginai.

Anyway, WoW is extremely addicting. I'll be even more addicted to it when the Lich King expansion comes out on Novemebr 3rd... XD

Yes I've sworn never to touch an MMORPG now - they suck but they're extremely addictive.

I was playing phantasy star online for sooo long - it was taking over my life...I was playing it in all my spare time - it ruined my exam revision. :(

And I was playing it while thinking to myself "this is sooo boring"...but I couldn't make myself stop...

I know many who have been sucked in! I personally won't play it because the game seems addictive! :(

Now we can all just be glad we didn't get this obsessed with it...phew.

I'm definitely not going any where near WoW.
Too scared of getting sucked in D:

Yeah I feel sorry for him :(
Think how much time and money he's wasting on...nothing...

He'll spend hundreds of hours level grinding...which is no fun...and once he does get to the highest level, he creates a new character and off he goes again...the worst use of time imaginable - And to think he's paying so much just to do that... :(

It's like a job but he's paying for it...:dry:
