I have Bioshock on the 360. It really is a AAA game. The water effects in the game look SO realistic. The gameplay, the graphics, everything is practically perfect. Play this game in pitch black with surround sound speakers and on a wide screen HDTV...lol.

this game is one of the sickest games i ever played!!!!

For those who have not played it yet(and for those who have but dont know this...)the game has 2 endings!

It depends on if you choose to harvest the little girls or save them.

I chose the path of light:P i saved them all.

If you ask me by the time you reach the ending of the game you are going to need something joyfull to see with all that darkness going around in the game!

But be shure that it KICKS ASS!
